Dear Mr. Manley

On about March 20th I received a Notice Of Formal Hearing dated February 4th and scheduled for February 21st which was sent by surface mail and hence the delay in my receiving it.

I must admit that this surprised more than a little as I am still waiting a reply from you concerning my last letter dealing with the claiming of dependents.

I have heard nothing further and wonder if you could please write me as to what the situation is.

Sincerely yours,

William G. Summer, Jr.
