Dear Mr. & Mrs. Pitman:

Please take notice of the Decision of the State Tax Commission enclosed herewith.

You have now exhausted your right of review at the administrative level. Pursuant to section ~~381~~ 690 of the Tax Law, any proceeding in court to review an adverse decision by the State Tax Commission can only be instituted under Article 78 of the Civil Practice Laws and Rules, and must be commenced in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Albany County, within 4 Months from the date of this notice.

Inquiries concerning the computation of tax due or refund allowed in accordance with this decision may be addressed to the Deputy Commissioner and Counsel to the New York State Department of Taxation and Finance, Albany, New York 12227. Said inquiries will be referred to the proper authority for reply.

Sincerely,

PAUL B. COBURN

Lorraine F. Pitman and Marian C. Pitman, his wife, 4 Country Lane, Westport, Connecticut, filed a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund of personal income taxes under Article 22 of the Tax Law for the years 1965 and 1966. (File No. 0-0001208)

A formal hearing was held at the offices of the State Tax Commission, Two World Trade Center, New York, New York, before Solomon Sies, Hearing Officer, on September 14, 1976 at 9:15 a.m.

The petitioners appeared by Jacques M. Levy, Esq. The Income Tax Bureau appeared by Peter Crotty, Esq. (James A. Scott, Esq. of counsel).

ISSUE

Whether all of the income of the Hambros Delaware Corporation, a limited partner of Laidlaw & Co., received from said partnership should be allocated to New York State.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Laidlaw & Co. was a New York partnership engaged in the brokerage business. It dealt in securities under the supervision of the New York Stock Exchange, with branches doing business outside the State of New York. It derived a portion of its brokerage income from sources outside the State of New York.

2. Laidlaw & Co. was also a firm of private bankers doing business under the supervision of the Banking Department of the State of New York. The firm was founded in 1842 under the name of Lees and Waller, and its members were engaged as commission agents and bankers. The name was later changed to Laidlaw & Co. In the 1870's, the firm joined the New York Stock Exchange. The banking business of the partnership was conducted solely at its principal office in the City of New York, and all of its income from the banking business was derived solely from sources within the State of New York.

3. Laidlaw & Co.'s banking department was required under the New York State Banking Law to maintain and keep separate books and records with respect thereto, and did maintain such books and records separate and apart from its books and records pertaining to its brokerage business.

4. In 1960, Laidlaw & Co. decided to bolster its banking department by associating with the Hambros Bank of England, which offered to invest five million dollars of cash capital in Laidlaw. As a result, the Hambros Delaware Corporation was incorporated under the laws of Delaware, and became a limited partner of Laidlaw & Co., entitled to share in the income from the banking department only. Hambros did not share in any part of the income from the securities business, which was derived in part from New York sources and in part from sources outside New York State.

5. On February 20, 1969, the Income Tax Bureau notified Laidlaw & Co. that the nonresident allocation percentage for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1965 was 44.15%, and that the nonresident allocation percentage for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1966 was 43.03%. The aforementioned percentages were determined by dividing the New York net income (after modifications) by the Federal net income (after modifications).

In arriving at the percentage formula, the Income Tax Bureau allocated the Hambros share of banking income (65%) to sources outside New York and only 35% of said income to New York.

6. The partnership agreement, in accordance with the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, further provided that the Hambros Delaware Corporation was prohibited from any participation in the profits from the brokerage business. The Hambros Delaware Corporation, pursuant to the Articles of Copartnership, was to receive 65% of the profits of the banking department only, and the general partners of Laidlaw & Co. were to receive 35% of the profits.

7. In arriving at the percentage allocable to New York, the nonresident general partners allocated all of the Hambros share of banking income to New York.

8. On July 28, 1969, the Income Tax Bureau issued statements of audit changes to the nonresident general partners of Laidlaw & Co., including the above named petitioners, adjusting their income in accordance with Finding of Fact "5" supra. Accordingly, the Bureau issued a Notice of Deficiency therefor.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. That all of the income of the Hambros Delaware Corporation was allocable to New York in accordance with the provisions of section 637(a) of the Tax Law and of the Income Tax Regulations (20 NYCRR 134.1).

B. That the nonresident allocation percentage used in computing the New York partnership of the petitioners, as reported on their income tax return, was correct, and the percentage as determined by the Income Tax Bureau was erroneous.

C. That the petition of Lorraine F. Pitman and Marian C. Pitman is granted and the Statement of Audit Changes and the Notice of Deficiency be and the same are hereby cancelled.
