JOHN J. BOWER and MARIANNE BOWER	:	DECISION
for Redetermination of a Deficiency or	:
for Refund of Personal Income Tax under	:
Article 22 of the Tax Law for the Year	:
1975.	:

Petitioners, John J. Bower and Marianne Bower, 30 Meadowridge Lane, Old Brookville, New York 11545, filed a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund of personal income tax under Article 22 of the Tax Law for the year 1975 (File No. 23276).

A small claims hearing was held before Allen Caplowaith, Hearing Officer, at the offices of the State Tax Commission, Two World Trade Center, New York, New York, on April 24, 1980 at 9:15 A.M. Petitioner appeared by John Gardner, Esq. The Audit Division appeared by Ralph J. Vecchio, Esq. (Angelo Scopellito, Esq., of counsel).

ISSUES

I. Whether the New York City unincorporated business tax is an "income tax" which must be added to Federal adjusted gross income in determining New York adjusted gross income.

II. Whether section 612(b)(3) of the Tax Law is constitutional if applicable to the New York City unincorporated business tax.

III. Whether the Notice of Deficiency should be cancelled as a result of the Law Bureau's failure to serve an answer to the petition of John J. Bower and Marianne Bower.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioners, John J. Bower and Marianne Bower, filed a joint New York State Income Tax Resident Return for the year 1975 wherein Federal adjusted gross income was reported without any modifications thereto as provided for in section 612 of the Tax Law.

2. Petitioner John J. Bower is an attorney and a partner in the law firm of Bower & Gardner, 415 Madison Avenue, New York City. Said firm deducted 1975 New York City unincorporated business tax as an expense item on its Federal partnership return.

3. On March 14, 1978, the Audit Division issued a Statement of Audit Changes to petitioners wherein it was stated that "Unincorporated Business Taxes imposed by New York City are not deductible in determining personal income tax." Based on the above, petitioners' reported "total income" was increased by $9,029.49 for the year 1975. Said amount represented petitioner John J. Bower's distributive share of the New York City unincorporated business tax deduction taken on the partnership returns of Bower and Gardner for said year. Accordingly, a Notice of Deficiency was issued against petitioners on June 2, 1978 asserting additional personal income tax of $1,388.28, plus interest of $251.52, for a total due of $1,639.80.

4. Petitioner John J. Bower contended that the New York City unincorporated business tax is a business excise tax rather than an income tax, and that no modification with respect thereto is required by the Tax Law. Additionally, he argued that to require such modification results in the same money being taxed twice, thereby making such modification, if in fact required, unconstitutional.

5. Petitioners contended that since the Law Bureau has not served an answer to their petition, the allegations of fact set forth in their petition are deemed to be admitted. Accordingly, they argue that the Notice of Deficiency should be cancelled on this ground.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. That the New York City unincorporated business tax is an "income tax" pursuant to chapter 46, title S of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

B. That the amounts representing petitioner John J. Bower's distributive share of New York City unincorporated business tax deduction taken on the partnership return of Bower & Gardner must be added to Federal adjusted gross income in accordance with the meaning and intent of section 612(b)(3) of the Tax Law and 20 NYCRR 116.2(c).

C. That there is no jurisdiction at the administrative level to declare such law unconstitutional. Therefore, it must be presumed that section 612(b)(3) of the Tax Law is constitutional to the extent it relates to the imposition of a personal income tax liability on petitioners.

D. That where the Law Bureau fails to answer (the petition) within the prescribed time, petitioner may make a motion to the State Tax Commission on notice to the Law Bureau, for a determination on default. The State Tax Commission shall either grant that motion and issue a default decision or shall determine such other appropriate relief that it deems is warranted (20 NYCRR 601.6(4)). That the petitioner has failed to comply with the motion practice requirements pursuant to 20 NYCRR 601.10. Accordingly, no motion exists. However, whether the Notice of Deficiency should be cancelled as a result of the Law Bureau's failure to serve an answer to the petition shall be an issue herein.

That the record does not indicate that the actions or inactions of the Department of Taxation and Finance have unduly prejudiced or adversely affected the petitioners' position in this matter, nor is there any evidence or indication of a denial of due process, therefore the Notice of Deficiency is sustained.

E. That the petition of John J. Bower and Marianne Bower is denied and the Notice of Deficiency dated June 2, 1978 is sustained together with such additional interest as may be lawfully owing.
