WAYNE COLLINS and ANGELA COLLINS for Redetermination of a Deficiency or for Refund of Personal Income Tax under Article 22 : of the Tax Law for the Year 1974.

DECISION

Petitioners, Wayne Collins and Angela Collins, c/o Ziebarth, Geary & Co., 60 Broad Street, New York, New York 10004, filed a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund of personal income tax under Article 22 of the Tax Law for the year 1974 (File No. 23054).

A formal hearing was held before James T. Prendergast, Hearing Officer, at the offices of the State Tax Commission, Two World Trade Center, New York, New York, on July 24, 1979 at 2:45 P.M. and continued to conclusion before James T. Prendergast, Hearing Officer, at the same offices on July 25, 1979 at 1:15 P.M. Petitioner appeared by Jack Wong, CPA. The Audit Division appeared by Peter Crotty, Esq. (Bruce Zalaman, Esq., of counsel).

ISSUES

- I. Whether the sale of a membership on a stock exchange results in an ordinary loss rather than a capital loss.
- II. Whether the loss was properly allocated to the partners.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioners, Wayne Collins and Angela Collins, timely filed a New York State income tax nonresident return for 1974.

2. On January 31, 1978, the Audit Division issued a Statement of Audit Changes against petitioners. Said Statement asserted additional income tax due for the year 1974, on the grounds that the loss on the sale of a stock exchange seat constituted a capital loss rather than an ordinary loss. Accordingly, on April 4, 1978, the Audit Division issued a Notice of Deficiency for 1974 against petitioners for $2,182.99 in personal income tax, plus $551.07 in interest, for a total of $2,734.06.

3. Petitioners timely filed a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund of personal income tax for the year 1974.

4. Petitioner, Wayne Collins, was a general partner in the limited partnership of Ziebarth, Geary & Co.

5. Ziebarth, Geary & Co. is a specialist firm on the New York Stock Exchange which performs the function of maintaining a market in particular securities sold on the Exchange. Ziebarth, Geary & Co. earns most of its income from buying and selling securities and from commissions paid to it for buying and selling for others. In order to do this it must own a beneficial interest in a membership on the New York Stock Exchange, commonly known as a "seat".

6. The schedule of ordinary gains and losses which was attached to the partnership return showed an ordinary loss of $258,790.00 from the sale of a New York Stock Exchange Seat purchased in September 1969 for $323,790.00 and sold in October 1974 for $65,000.00. The seat sold in 1974 was registered in the name of petitioner Wayne Collins who contributed said seat to the partnership pursuant to an "Agreement of Limited Partnership". Petitioner Wayne Collins and Ziebarth, Geary & Co. entered into an a-b-c agreement whereby petitioner agreed that he or his legal representative would comply with the terms of one of the three following options:

(a) Retain his membership and pay to the partnership the amount necessary to purchase another membership; or

(b) sell his membership and pay the proceeds over to the partnership; or

(c) transfer his membership for a nominal consideration to a person designated by the partnership and satisfactory to the Board of Directors.

7. Pursuant to the Partnership Agreement, gains and losses with respect to stock exchange seats were to be shared by the member partners in proportion to their profit and loss ratios on an ongoing year-to-year basis. Thus, according to the Partnership Agreement, the distributive share schedule apportioned the seat loss of $258,790.00 to the members of Ziebarth, Geary & Co. as follows:

|                      |                     |
|----------------------|---------------------|
| Jack A. Ziebarth     | $ 74,370.00        |
| John W. Geary II     | 79,500.00           |
| Robert N. Westerlund | 89,450.00           |
| Wayne T. Collins     | 14,250.00           |
| John J. Peppe        | 1,220.00     |
| Total Loss           | $258,790.00 |

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. That section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code and Treas. Reg. 1.1221-1(a) define "capital asset" to include all property held by the taxpayer (whether or not connected with his trade or business), with certain exceptions. The sale of the seat does not meet any of the exclusions of section 1221 and is therefore a capital asset of the partnership.

B. That the sale of a stock exchange seat constitutes the sale of a capital asset (Munson v. Commissioner, 100 F.2d 363). Therefore, the loss derived from the sale of said seat is a capital loss pursuant to Internal Revenue Code section 1212(b) and is subject to the limitations prescribed in section 1211(b); that "The agreement to share profits and losses on a seat is inconsistent with any reasonable theory that it was not a capital asset."

(Munson v. Commissioner, supra, at 366).

C. That the partnership of Ziebarth, Geary & Co. erroneously deducted the loss from sale of the stock exchange seat as an ordinary loss rather than a capital loss.

D. That the Audit Division is hereby directed to recompute petitioner Wayne Collins's distributive share of partnership ordinary income by omitting therefrom the loss derived from the sale of the stock exchange seat; that petitioner is allowed a capital loss subject to the limitations provided for in Internal Revenue Code Section 1211(b); and that, except as directed, the petition of Wayne Collins and Angela Collins is denied.
