Dear Mr. Coburn,

In regard to a default order on the petition of Goose + Gherkin Ale Imperative Assoc. Inc. for revision of Sales + Use Taxes, we are requesting, as per our conversation of Nov. 21, that you vacate the default.

The order came as a surprise to us since we had had one meeting with a representative of the tax commission at which nothing was resolved, and he told us he would notify us of a second meeting. We did not receive notice. Time past, the records were destroyed by fire, and personnel changed as the business was sold. Attention to this matter was lost until our lawyer received the default order.

We intend to pay the tax and have filed for copies of our federal returns with which to compute it. In the meantime, we ask that the default order be vacated and a new meeting set for a future date at which the tax may be determined. Please send your response by Dec. 7, as the present owners of the Goose + Gherkin desire this matter resolved quickly. Mail to: John Thompson, c/o John Clark 306 W. 38th St., 3rd floor, N.Y., N.Y.

Sincerely,

John Thompson
