1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air.

It was a relief after the stale air of the city. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing. I felt a sense of freedom and peace. The landscape was beautiful, with rolling hills and a clear blue sky.

I had heard that the weather was perfect, and it was true. The people were friendly, and the food was delicious. I was in luck. I had found a new home.

It was a small town, but it was everything I needed.

In the Matter of the Petition of Efiginio Martinez

August 4, 1969
Hearing Unit

A personal check in the amount of $62.15 was received from the petitioner and forwarded to the attention of Sol Sies, Senior Attorney. I have been advised that this sum will be accepted by the Income Tax Bureau in full settlement of the petitioner's liability.

Therefore, the enclosed minutes and record of the hearing held on July 8, 1969 is forwarded to your office for whatever value it may have in your considerations. We are marking this matter closed in our files.
