ISSUE

Were the three partnerships practicing a profession and therefore exempt from paying unincorporated business pursuant to Article 16-A, section 386 of the Tax Law?

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. Applicants, Brownjohn and Chermayeff, Chermayeff and Geismar Associates, and Brownjohn, Chermayeff and Geismar timely filed New York State unincorporated business tax returns for the periods May 1, 1957 to August 1, 1957, July 1, 1960 to December 31, 1960, August 1, 1957 to December 31, 1957, and for the year 1959.
- 2. A Notice of Additional Assessment in unincorporated business taxes for the periods May 1, 1957 to August 1, 1957, July 1, 1960 to December 31, 1960, August 1, 1957 to December 31, 1957, and for the year 1959 was issued on December 7, 1961, and March 20, 1962, against the taxpayers under File No. B992042.

- 3. The taxpayers applied for redetermination of the deficiencies.
- 4. More than eighty percent of the gross income of the partnerships was derived from the personal services actually rendered by the members of the partnership and capital was not a material income producing factor.
- 5. The taxpayers were educated in the field of design at various schools including Harvard University, Yale School of Fine Arts, the Institute of Design of the Illinois Institute of Technology, Brown University and the Rhode Island School of Design.
- 6. The Industrial Designers Society of America has defined industrial design as an ability to deal with all the physical aspects and properties of a company whereby public goodwill is influenced visually, including the design of trademarks, packaging, interiors of offices and administration buildings, company signs and trucks, public exhibits and even stationery, office forms and uniforms of employees.
- 7. Taxpayers, Chermayeff and Geismar (Brownjohn has been living in England since 1960) were both senior members of the Industrial Designers Society of America in 1965. A senior member is a classification requiring ten years of practice in the profession of industrial design. The society therefore recognized taxpayers, Chermayeff and Geismar, as having been industrial designers for at least the ten years up until 1965.

8. The taxpayers' work for the periods in question included the design of corporate symbols, architectural lettering, exhibit design, design of uniforms, design of products (i.e. a new aerosol can top) and many other examples of industrial design included within the above definition of the Industrial Designers Society of America.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. We hold that the taxpayers are engaged in the practice of the profession of industrial design. Teague v. Graves, et al., 261 App. Div. 652, 287 N.Y. 549. The taxpayers met well defined criteria for this profession and the profession of industrial design has been held to be exempt from the unincorporated business tax in Teague v. Graves.

B. The taxpayers' petition is sustained. It is determined that there are no additional assessments or deficiencies in unincorporated business tax against the taxpayers for the periods in question.
