Article 22 of the Tax Law for the Year	:
1974.	:

Petitioners, Carlino Market, George Carlino and Margaret Carlino and Robert Carlino and Mary Carlino, all located in Brant Lake, New York 12815, filed petitions for redetermination of deficiencies or for refund of personal income and unincorporated business taxes under Articles 22 and 23 of the Tax Law for the year 1974 (File Nos. 20558, 20559, and 20560).

On July 24, 1979, petitioners advised the State Tax Commission, in writing, that they desired to waive a small claims hearing and to submit the case to the State Tax Commission, based on the entire record contained in the file.

ISSUE

Whether additional sales tax paid by Carlino's Market, as the result of a sales tax audit, is a proper partnership deduction.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner, Carlino Market, a retail grocery store, timely filed a New York State Partnership Return for 1974. On said return, petitioner claimed a deduction for a sales tax assessment, paid as the result of a sales tax audit for the periods ending August 31, 1971 through May 31, 1974. The amount claimed was $15,165.00, which consisted of additional sales tax of $12,750.00 and interest of $2,415.00. Schedule U-D was prepared, but no unincorporated business tax was due since the exemption was greater than the net income reported. Petitioners, George and Margaret Carlino and Robert and Mary Carlino, timely filed New York State income tax resident returns for 1974 wherein George Carlino and Robert Carlino each reported their distributive shares from the partnership, Carlino Market, in which they shared profits and losses equally.

2. On March 30, 1977, the Audit Division issued a Statement of Audit Changes to Carlino Market wherein the deduction claimed for sales tax of $12,750.00 was disallowed as an "improper deduction". Additionally, business income was increased by $9,174.00, as the result of a cash flow analysis and business expenses were reduced by $224.00. Accordingly, a Notice of Deficiency was issued against petitioner, Carlino Market, on September 26, 1977, asserting unincorporated business tax of $827.00, plus interest of $172.17, for a total due of $999.17.

On March 30, 1977, statements of audit changes were issued to petitioners, George and Margaret Carlino and Robert and Mary Carlino, wherein their reported

New York incomes were increased by 50 percent of the total partnership adjustment. Accordingly, notices of deficiency were issued against each on September 26, 1977.

3. The issue, with respect to the cash flow analysis adjustment, was resolved at a pre-hearing conference wherein all parties to the conference agreed to reduce said adjustment from $9,174.00 to $3,576.00 based on substantiation presented. The adjustment for personal expenses disallowed, in the amount of $224.00, was previously conceded by petitioners. The remaining unresolved issue is the deductibility of the sales taxes paid as the result of a sales tax audit assessment.

4. Petitioners contended that the additional sales tax assessed was not collected due to their failure to properly interpret the law as to the taxability of items which they sold in the grocery store. The sales tax assessment was based on the application of a taxable purchase percentage to the sales reported. Petitioners contended that the assessed sales taxes paid constituted a deductible, ordinary and necessary business expense since the assessment was paid from the partnership's funds and it was impossible to identify and recover the tax from specific customers.

5. The Audit Division determined that the sales taxes at issue were not included in the gross receipts of the business.

6. The Audit Division maintained that the sales tax assessment was based on sales tax collected by petitioner but not remitted to the State. The record does not indicate whether or not the sales taxes at issue were actually collected by petitioner, Carlino Market.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. That petitioner, Carlino Market, has not sustained its burden of proof required under section 689(e) of the Tax Law to show that the additional sales taxes assessed and paid were not collected from its customers. Consequently, the sales taxes at issue are not deductible. The question as to whether said taxes would be deductible if, in fact, they were not collected, is, at this time, moot.

B. That the petitions of Carlino Market, George Carlino and Margaret Carlino, and Robert Carlino and Mary Carlino are granted to the extent of the adjustment regarding the cash flow analysis agreed on during a pre-hearing conference pursuant to Finding of Fact "3" supra. That the Audit Division is hereby directed to modify accordingly the notices of deficiency issued September 26, 1977; and that, except as so granted, the petitions are in all other respects denied.
