

STATE OF NEW YORK
DIVISION OF TAX APPEALS

In the Matter of the Petition :
of :
NASHANET LESLIE : DETERMINATION
for Redetermination of a Deficiency or for Refund : DTA NO. 825985 of New York State Personal Income Tax under :
Article 22 of the Tax Law for the Year 2010. :

Pursuant to § 3000.3(d)(1) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Tax Appeals Tribunal, when the petition is not in the correct form required, the supervising administrative law judge shall promptly return it to the petitioner with a statement indicating the requirements with which the petition does not comply, and extend to the petitioner an additional thirty (30) days within which to file a corrected petition with the supervising administrative law judge.

According to the Tax Appeals Tribunal Rules of Practice and Procedure § 3000.3(b)(4), the petition shall contain the amount of tax in controversy and a statement of the facts upon which the petitioner relies to establish each said error. In this case, the petitioner failed to include the amount of tax in controversy and failed to include a statement of facts.

Pursuant to 20 NYCRR 3000.3(d)(2), where the petitioner fails to serve a corrected petition within the time prescribed in 20 NYCRR 3000.3(d)(1), the supervising administrative law judge will issue a determination dismissing the petition.

No response having been received from the petitioner as of this date; therefore,

IT IS ORDERED, on the administrative law judge's own motion, that the petition be, and it is hereby, dismissed with prejudice as of this date.

DATED: Albany, New York
June 2, 2014
