Income Tax under Article 22 of the Tax Law and	:
the Administrative Code of the City of New York	:
for the Year 2015.	:

Petitioners, Hassan N. Hussein and Eslam S. Fattah, filed a petition for redetermination of deficiency or for refund of New York State and New York City personal income tax under article 22 of the Tax Law and the Administrative Code of the City of New York for the year 2015.¹

The Division of Taxation, by its representative, Amanda Hiller, Esq. (Mary Hurteau, Esq., of counsel), brought a motion that was postmarked April 29, 2020, seeking an order dismissing the petition, or in the alternative, summary determination in the above-referenced matter pursuant to sections 3000.5 and 3000.9 (a) and (b) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Tax Appeals Tribunal. Petitioners, appearing pro se, did not respond to the Division of Taxation’s motion. The 90-day period for issuance of this determination commenced on May 29, 2020. Based upon the motion papers, the affidavits and documents submitted therewith, and all pleadings and documents submitted in connection with this matter, Nicholas A. Behuniak, ¹ The petition lists Yehad M. Abdelaziz, as petitioners’ representative. In the petition, Mr. Abdelaziz asserts authority to represent the petitioners as their “TAX PREPARER” with no other professional designation claimed to justify his authority to represent petitioners. By a letter dated October 15, 2019, the petition intake unit of the Division of Tax Appeals informed petitioners that Mr. Abdelaziz did not qualify to represent them before the Division of Tax Appeals.

Administrative Law Judge, renders the following determination.

ISSUE

Whether petitioners filed a timely request for a conciliation conference with the Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services following the issuance of a notice of deficiency.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The subject of the motion of the Division of Taxation (Division) is the timeliness of petitioners' protest of a notice of deficiency dated January 3, 2019 and bearing assessment identification number L-048770493 (notice). The notice was addressed to petitioners, Hassan N. Hussein and Eslam S. Fattah, at an address in Brooklyn, New York.

2. Petitioners filed a request for conciliation conference (request) with the Division's Bureau of Conciliation and Mediation Services (BCMS) in protest of the notice. Petitioners faxed the request to BCMS, which deemed the request as filed on August 16, 2019.

3. On September 6, 2019, BCMS issued a conciliation order dismissing request (conciliation order) to petitioners. The conciliation order determined that petitioners' protest of the notice was untimely and stated, in part:

“The Tax Law requires that a request be filed within 90 days from the date of the statutory notice. Since the notice(s) was issued on January 3, 2019, but the request was not received until August 16, 2019, or in excess of 90 days, the request is late filed.”

4. Petitioners filed a timely petition with the Division of Tax Appeals in protest of the conciliation order on September 17, 2019.

5. To show proof of proper mailing of the notice, the Division provided the following: (i) an affidavit of Deena Picard, a Data Processing Fiscal Systems Auditor 3 and Acting Director of the Division's Management Analysis and Project Services Bureau (MAPS), dated April 7, 2020;

(ii) a certified mail record titled “CERTIFIED RECORD FOR – DTF – 962-F-E – Not of Def Follow Up” (CMR) postmarked January 3, 2019; (iii) an affidavit of Susan Saccocio, a manager in the Division’s mail room, dated April 14, 2020; (iv) a copy of the notice with the associated mailing cover sheet addressed to petitioners; (v) an affidavit of the Division’s attorney, Mary Hurteau, dated April 28, 2020; and, (vi) a copy of petitioners’ e-filed New York State personal income tax return (form IT-201) for the year 2017, which lists the same address for petitioners as that listed on the request for conciliation conference and the petition. According to the affidavit of Mary Hurteau, the 2017 income tax return was the last return filed with the Division by petitioners before the notice was issued. Petitioners’ address on the notice conforms to the address reflected on their 2017 income tax return, except that petitioners’ address on the notice includes an additional four zip code digits to petitioners’ five-digit zip code.

6. The affidavit of Deena Picard, who has been in her current position since May 2017, and a Data Processing Fiscal Systems Auditor 3 since February 2006, sets forth the Division’s general practice and procedure for processing statutory notices. Ms. Picard is familiar with the Division’s Case and Resource Tracking System (CARTS), which generates statutory notices prior to mailing. As the Acting Director of MAPS, which is responsible for the receipt and storage of CMRs, Ms. Picard is familiar with the Division’s past and present procedures as they relate to statutory notices. Statutory notices are generated from CARTS and are predated with the anticipated date of mailing. Each page of the CMR lists an initial date that is approximately 10 days in advance of the anticipated date of mailing. Following the Division’s general practice, this date is manually changed on the first and last page of the CMR to the actual date of mailing of “1/3” and “1/3/19” respectively. In addition, as described by Ms. Picard, generally all pages of the CMR are banded together when the documents are delivered into possession of the United States Postal Service (USPS) and remain so when returned to the Division. The pages of the CMR stay banded together unless otherwise ordered. The page numbers of the CMR run consecutively, starting with "PAGE: 1," and are noted in the upper right corner of each page.

7. All notices are assigned a certified control number. The certified control number of each notice is listed on a separate one-page mailing cover sheet, which also bears a bar code, the mailing address and the Departmental return address on the front, and taxpayer assistance information on the back. The certified control number is also listed on the CMR under the heading entitled "CERTIFIED NO." The CMR lists each notice in the order the notices are generated in the batch. The assessment numbers are listed under the heading "REFERENCE NO." The names and addresses of the recipients are listed under "NAME OF ADDRESSEE, STREET, AND P.O. ADDRESS."

8. The January 3, 2019 CMR consists of 244 pages and lists 2,865 certified control numbers along with corresponding assessment numbers, names and addresses. Ms. Picard notes that the copy of the CMR has been redacted to preserve the confidentiality of information relating to taxpayers who are not involved in this proceeding. A USPS representative affixed a postmark, dated January 3, 2019 to each page of the CMR, initialed and wrote the number "2865" on the last page next to the heading "TOTAL PIECES AND AMOUNTS."

9. Page 136 of the CMR indicates that a notice of deficiency with certified control number 7104 1002 9735 4676 2208 and assessment ID number L-048770493 was mailed to petitioners at the Brooklyn, New York, address listed on the notice. The corresponding mailing cover sheet, attached to the Picard affidavit as exhibit "B," bears this certified control number and petitioners' name and address as noted.

10. The affidavit of Susan Saccocio describes the general operations and procedures of the Division's mail room. Ms. Saccocio has been a manager in the mail room since 2017 and, as a result, is familiar with the practices of the mail room with regard to statutory notices. The mail room receives the notices and places them in an "Outgoing Certified Mail" area. Ms. Saccocio confirms that a mailing cover sheet precedes each notice. A staff member retrieves the notices and mailing cover sheets and operates a machine that puts each notice and mailing cover sheet into a windowed envelope. Staff members then weigh, seal and place postage on each envelope. The first and last pieces of mail are checked against the information contained on the CMR. A clerk then performs a random review of 30 or fewer pieces listed on the CMR by checking those envelopes against the information contained on the CMR. A staff member then delivers the envelopes and the CMR to one of the various USPS branches located in the Albany, New York, area. A USPS employee affixes a postmark and also places his or her initials or signature on the CMR, indicating receipt by the post office. The USPS employee initialed each page of the CMR and affixed a postmark to each page of the CMR. The mail room further requests that the USPS either circle the total number of pieces received or indicate the total number of pieces received by writing the number on the CMR. A review of the January 3, 2019 CMR indicates that the USPS employee complied with this request by writing the number of pieces received on the CMR.

11. According to all of the affidavits submitted, a copy of the notice was properly mailed to petitioners at their Brooklyn, New York, address on the dates indicated as claimed.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. As noted, the Division brings a motion to dismiss the petition under section 3000.9 (a) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Tax Appeals Tribunal (Rules) or, in the alternative, a motion for summary determination under section 3000.9 (b). As the petition in this matter was filed within 90 days of the conciliation order, the Division of Tax Appeals has jurisdiction over the petition and, accordingly, a motion for summary determination under section 3000.9 (b) of the Rules is the proper vehicle to consider the timeliness of petitioners' request for conciliation conference. This determination shall address the instant motion as such.

B. A motion for summary determination "shall be granted if, upon all the papers and proof submitted, the administrative law judge finds that it has been established sufficiently that no material and triable issue of fact is presented" (20 NYCRR 3000.9 [b] [1]).

C. Section 3000.9 (c) of the Rules provides that a motion for summary determination is subject to the same provisions as a motion for summary judgment pursuant to CPLR 3212. "The proponent of a summary judgment motion must make a prima facie showing of entitlement to judgment as a matter of law, tendering sufficient evidence to eliminate any material issues of fact from the case" (Winegrad v New York Univ. Med. Ctr., 64 NY2d 851, 853 [1985], citing Zuckerman v City of New York, 49 NY2d 557, 562 [1980]). As summary judgment is the procedural equivalent of a trial, it should be denied if there is any doubt as to the existence of a triable issue or where the material issue of fact is "arguable" (Glick & Dolleck, Inc. v Tri-Pac Export Corp., 22 NY2d 439, 441 [1968]; Museums at Stony Brook v Vil. of Patchogue Fire Dept., 146 AD2d 572 [2d Dept 1989]). "If material facts are in dispute, or if contrary inferences may be drawn reasonably from undisputed facts," then a full trial is warranted and the case should not be decided on a motion (Gerard v Inglese, 11 AD2d 381, 382 [2d Dept 1960]). "To defeat a motion for summary judgment, the opponent must . . . produce 'evidentiary proof in admissible form sufficient to require a trial of material questions of fact on which he rests his claim'" (Whelan v GTE Sylvania, 182 AD2d 446, 449 [1st Dept 1992], citing Zuckerman).

D. Petitioners did not respond to the Division's motion. Accordingly, they are deemed to have conceded that no question of fact requiring a hearing exists (see Kuehne & Nagel v Baiden, 36 NY2d 539 [1975]; John William Costello Assocs. v Standard Metals Corp., 99 AD2d 227 [1st Dept 1984], appeal dismissed 62 NY2d 942 [1984]). Petitioners have presented no evidence to contest the facts alleged in the Picard, Saccocio or Hurteau affidavits; consequently, those facts are deemed admitted (Kuehne & Nagel v Baiden, at 544; Whelan v GTE Sylvania).

E. A taxpayer may protest a notice of deficiency by filing a petition for a hearing with the Division of Tax Appeals within 90 days from date of mailing of such notice (see Tax Law §§ 681 [b]; 689 [b]). Alternatively, a taxpayer may contest a notice by filing a request for a conciliation conference with BCMS “if the time to petition for such a hearing has not elapsed” (Tax Law § 170 [3-a] [a]). It is well established that the 90-day statutory time limit for filing either a petition or a request for a conciliation conference is strictly enforced and that, accordingly, protests filed even one day late are considered untimely (see e.g. Matter of American Woodcraft, Tax Appeals Tribunal, May 15, 2003; Matter of Maro Luncheonette, Tax Appeals Tribunal, February 1, 1996). This is because, absent a timely protest, a notice of deficiency becomes a fixed and final assessment and, consequently, the Division of Tax Appeals is without jurisdiction to consider the substantive merits of the protest (see Matter of Lukacs, Tax Appeals Tribunal, November 8, 2007; Matter of Sak Smoke Shop, Tax Appeals Tribunal, January 6, 1989).

F. Where, as here, the timeliness of a request for conciliation conference is at issue, the initial inquiry is whether the Division has carried its burden of demonstrating the fact and date of the mailing to petitioner’s last known address (see Matter of Katz, Tax Appeals Tribunal, November 14, 1991). To meet its burden, the Division must show proof of a standard procedure used by the Division for the issuance of statutory notices by one with knowledge of the relevant procedures, and must also show proof that the standard procedure was followed in this particular instance (see Matter of Katz; Matter of Novar TV & Air Conditioner Sales & Serv., Tax Appeals Tribunal, May 23, 1991).

G. Here, the Division has offered proof sufficient to establish the mailing of the notice to petitioners' last known address on January 3, 2019. The CMR has been properly completed and therefore constitutes highly probative documentary evidence of both the date and fact of mailing (see Matter of Rakusin, Tax Appeals Tribunal, July 26, 2001). The affidavits submitted by the Division adequately describe the Division's general mailing procedure as well as the relevant CMR and thereby establish that the general mailing procedure was followed in this case (see Matter of DeWeese, Tax Appeals Tribunal, June 20, 2002). Further, the address on the mailing cover sheet and CMR conforms with the address listed on petitioners' 2017 personal income tax return which satisfies the "last known address" requirement.² It is thus concluded that the Division properly mailed the notice on January 3, 2019, and the statutory 90-day time limit to file either a request for conciliation conference with BCMS or a petition with the Division of Tax Appeals commenced on that date (see Tax Law §§ 170 [3-a] [a]; 681 [b]; 689 [b]). Since the request was not filed until August 16, 2019, or well in excess of 90 days from the issuance of the January 3, 2019 notice, the request is untimely, and the Division of Tax Appeals is without jurisdiction to provide a hearing to address the merits of notice.

² While it is noted that the Division added 4 additional zip code digits to petitioners' zip code as reflected on their 2017 personal income tax return filed, such a difference is deemed inconsequential (see Matter of Perk, Tax Appeals Tribunal, December 13, 2001; Matter of Combemale, Tax Appeals Tribunal March 31, 1994). Moreover, petitioners do not contend that the notice was improperly addressed, nor do they dispute receipt of the notice, and

H. The Division's motion for summary determination is hereby granted, the petition of Hassan N. Hussein and Eslam S. Fattah is denied and the September 6, 2019 conciliation order dismissing petitioners' request is sustained.

they did not respond to the motion. As such, it is deemed admitted that the address on the notice was petitioners' last known address.
